

As a NJ resident, I am thrilled with the New Jersey Do Not Call List. We now have quiet days and evenings without the CONSTANT and I do mean constant interruption of telemarketer calls at all times of the day (especially dinner time). It is a quality of life issue and I do not want to see it weakened in any way. If there is a way to make the NJ and Federal Do Not Call Laws stronger that would be fine with me.